THE STORY OF MY LIFE

I remember standing in front of the mirror, pinching my stomach, genuinely not understanding what I was doing wrong. I was restricting everything — no sweets, no drinking, training almost every day. And I was still puffy, still soft, still looking heavier than I felt like I should. I thought I was gaining weight. I wasn't. My body was inflamed and exhausted and I had no idea.

I was a teenager. That's supposed to be the time you don't think about any of this. Instead I was obsessing over every meal, turning down plans because I didn't feel good enough in my body to show up. Add cystic acne on top of that and I genuinely wanted to disappear. I spent years hiding — from photos, from people, from the version of my life I was supposed to be living.

The only answer I was given was birth control. So I took it — without understanding anything. It helped a little on the surface. The real problem stayed exactly where it was.

I tried coaches too. Paid for programmes. Every single one gave me a completely new life to follow — new schedules, new routines I physically couldn't maintain. And instead of feeling better I just felt like I was failing even more. I couldn't focus on work. Couldn't relax. The programme became another thing stressing me out on top of everything else.

So I stopped. And I figured it out myself. Built a system around my actual life — not some ideal version of it. It took years. But it worked.

THAT'S THE WHOLE POINT OF WHAT I DO NOW. NOT HANDING YOU A
NEW LIFE TO MAINTAIN. BUILDING SOMETHING THAT WORKS INSIDE
THE ONE YOU ALREADY HAVE.

2 YEARS. SAME GIRL
DIFFERENT SYSTEM.

STOP TREATING YOUR 20S LIKE A WARM-UP.

Your body responds faster right now than it ever will again. The habits you build now compound for decades.

Most women spend this whole decade in the restart loop. Start Monday. Hold it together for a week. Fall off. Wait for the perfect moment to finally feel good. That moment never shows up.

THE COST OF WAITING ISN'T JUST THE EXTRA KG. IT'S THE SUMMERS UNCOMFORTABLE ON THE BEACH. THE PHOTOS YOU STEPPED OUT OF. THE CONFIDENCE, THE PRESENCE, THE LIFE — PARKED BEHIND ONE CONDITION: AS SOON AS I LOSE THE WEIGHT.

That version of you — lean, clear skin, energy that lasts — she's already real. She's just on the other side of a structure that works. You've waited long enough.

IT'S NOT JUST THE WEIGHT. EVERYTHING CHANGES.

AND HONESTLY, THE WEIGHT IS THE LEAST INTERESTING PART.

How you carry yourself

When you feel good in your body you stop second-guessing how you look in every room. You're just there — present, relaxed, not monitoring yourself the whole time.

Getting dressed

You stop picking clothes to hide specific parts. No more standing at the mirror working out what covers the bloat today. You just get dressed. That is not a small thing.

The mental silence

Food guilt, bloat anxiety, the constant fear you're gaining weight even when you're trying — it goes quiet. You stop checking your stomach before your feet hit the floor. You get entire days back.

The swimsuit thing

You go on holiday and you're actually there. Not angling yourself, not blaming yourself for each cake. You eat the dessert and move on. You stop avoiding the group photo. Just like that.

Your actual energy

Not the wired 3pm crash kind. The kind that's still there at 9pm. That lets you show up for the things you care about without running on empty.

Pretty privilege — real talk

Clear skin, lean body, confident energy. People treat you differently. It's not fair. It's also true. And it opens doors.

NONE OF THIS COMES FROM RESTRICTION. IT COMES FROM YOUR BODY BEING REGULATED — HORMONES SUPPORTED, BLOOD SUGAR STABLE,
INFLAMMATION DOWN. WHEN YOUR BODY STOPS FIGHTING YOU, EVERYTHING ELSE GETS EASIER.

THIS IS WHAT'S ON THE OTHER SIDE.

I live in Dubai. I have a partner I love, a business I built from scratch that pays better than any office ever did, and a body that's exactly where I always wanted it — lean, with curves, clear skin, energy every morning.

But here's the part I need you to actually hear.

I didn't build this with unlimited time and a perfect life. I built it while working 6 days a week at Louis Vuitton in Paris — demanding hours, a city I'd just moved to, a schedule that left almost nothing for myself. And I still showed up for my nutrition, my hormones, my training, my sleep. Not perfectly. Consistently. That's the difference.

The girl who couldn't leave the house, who said no to every party, who was sure her body was broken — she built all of this. In the busiest stretch of her life.

IF THE SYSTEM ONLY WORKED WHEN LIFE WAS EASY, IT WOULDN'T BE A SYSTEM.

THIS ONE WAS BUILT INSIDE THE CHAOS. I KNOW IT WORKS
BECAUSE I'M THE PROOF.

THE RUSSIAN LEAN FORMULA.

THREE PILLARS. EACH ONE TARGETS A DIFFERENT REASON YOUR BODY IS HOLDING ONTO WEIGHT, BLOAT, AND FATIGUE. THEY ONLY WORK AS A SET — PULL ONE OUT AND THE OTHERS START TO FALL APART.

01. UNBOTHERED MIND

You eat the cake. You don't work it off later. You don't think about it the next morning. You don't start over on Monday. You just ate cake — and moved on with your life. This is the foundation everything else is built on. Not discipline. Not restriction. The ability to live your life without food being the main character. I spent years obsessing, controlling, feeling guilty for every bite. The day I stopped — my body started changing. This pillar gets you there.

02. RUSSIAN RHYTHM

Your body doesn't need rules. It needs a rhythm. Same wake up, same meals, same movement — not because you're forcing it, but because your body learns it and starts working with it. You stop being hungry at random times. You stop craving things at 10pm. You stop making a hundred decisions about food every day. The structure runs on autopilot. I built this while working 6 days a week in Paris with no extra time and no perfect conditions. If it held there, it holds anywhere.

03. METABOLIC HARMONY

Here's what nobody told me for years: I didn't have a weight problem. I had a blood sugar problem. The cravings at 3pm, the bloating after every meal, the weight that wouldn't move no matter what I tried — all of it was the same thing. My Russian mom never used that term. But she always ate proper meals first — real food, fermented things, simple proteins, real grains. Never a protein bar on the go, never snacking all day. Her blood sugar was stable her whole life without her ever thinking about it. I mapped out what she was doing, understood the science behind it, and built it into the method. That's the part that changes everything.

THE FULL HOW-TO — EVERY STEP, EVERY COMBINATION, EVERY WEEK OF THE PLAN — IS WHAT WE BUILD TOGETHER. THE FORMULA IS THE MAP. THE 1:1 IS WHERE YOU GET THE DIRECTIONS.

STILL NOT CONVINCED?
NEITHER WAS I.

"I DON'T HAVE TIME. I WORK FULL TIME."

The whole system runs on 20-minute meals, 15-minute walks, and habits that stack onto what you're already doing. No meal-prep Sunday, no long gym sessions. Busy is exactly who this was designed for — because that's the only version of life that actually exists.

"I'VE TRIED EVERYTHING. NOTHING WORKS FOR ME."

Everything you've tried was restriction in a different outfit. Eat less, cut it out, suffer through the craving. That always fails because it's fighting your biology. What's different here isn't the food — it's the structure around the food. Same ingredients, completely different result.

"I CAN'T GIVE UP RESTAURANTS, TRAVEL, MY SOCIAL LIFE."

I was in Italy and France recently. I ate the pasta. I had the wine. I came home feeling better than when I left. The formula was built for restaurants and holidays and weekends — because anything that falls apart the second you live your life was never a system to begin with.

"I JUST NEED MORE DISCIPLINE AND WILLPOWER."

You don't need more discipline. You need less cortisol. More willpower adds stress to a body that's already overwhelmed. High cortisol is exactly what keeps you bloated and stuck no matter how hard you push. Less effort, better direction. That's the shift.

"IT'LL TAKE YEARS TO SEE RESULTS."

Most women lose 1 to 2 kg of bloat in the first week alone — just from stabilising blood sugar and pulling inflammation down. Real body composition change — 3 to 5 kg leaner — comes in 4 to 8 weeks. The full 5 to 8 kg shift happens over 2 to 3 months. Months, not years. And you feel it long before the scale catches up.

A woman with long, wavy blonde hair is looking over her shoulder towards the camera. She is wearing a black lace dress. The background is a warm, golden light, possibly from a window or a lamp, creating a soft, intimate atmosphere.

THIS IS WHERE IT GETS PERSONAL.

THE RUSSIAN LEAN FORMULA WORKS. BUT THE VERSION THAT PRODUCES REAL, LASTING RESULTS
ISN'T GENERIC — IT'S BUILT AROUND YOUR SPECIFIC BODY, YOUR HORMONES, YOUR SCHEDULE, YOUR HISTORY WITH FOOD AND TRAINING.

That's the part you can't shortcut. Two women can follow the same three pillars and get completely different results depending on how the plan is calibrated. The structure is the same. The execution is personal.

EVERY WEEK WITHOUT THE RIGHT STRUCTURE IS ANOTHER WEEK YOUR BODY STAYS IN THE SAME LOOP.
NOT BECAUSE YOU'RE DOING SOMETHING WRONG.
BECAUSE YOU'RE DOING IT WITHOUT A MAP.

That's exactly what the 1:1 is. Not another plan to follow alone — a map built for your body, with someone walking it with you.

A WARNING. THE GOOD KIND.

This changes more than your body. When the bloating is gone, you take up space differently. When your energy is stable, you stop surviving your days. You stop shrinking. You stop hiding. You stop waiting.

THIS IS NOT A 30-DAY CHALLENGE. IT'S A PERMANENT
RESTRUCTURING — OF HOW YOU LIVE, HOW YOU TALK TO YOURSELF,
AND WHAT YOU'RE WILLING TO TOLERATE. PEOPLE AROUND YOU WILL NOTICE BEFORE YOU DO.

So before you go to the next page: are you willing? Not perfect. Not ready. Just willing to show up and let it change you.

Because summer is already here. And the women who go all in on this with me — with a real plan, real accountability, someone who's been exactly where they are — are the ones it changes fastest.

THAT'S WHAT THE 1:1 IS. AND SPOTS ARE LIMITED. MORE ON THE NEXT PAGE.

NOW LET'S MAKE IT YOURS.

IF READING THIS FELT LIKE SOMEONE FINALLY DESCRIBING YOUR OWN LIFE BACK TO YOU —
THAT'S NOT AN ACCIDENT.
I LIVED EVERY PAGE OF IT.

THE FORMULA WORKS. WHERE YOU START
DEPENDS ON WHERE YOU'RE STANDING RIGHT
NOW, SO I WANT THE REAL PICTURE BEFORE WE TALK.

THREE MINUTES. THE BEGINNING OF A PLAN BUILT AROUND YOU.

I READ EVERY ANSWER MYSELF AND REACH OUT
PERSONALLY. NOT A CHATBOT. ME.

SUMMER IS NOT WAITING.

SWIMSUITS. HOLIDAYS. FEELING GOOD IN YOUR OWN SKIN
— THAT WINDOW IS NOW. NOT NEXT SUMMER.

I ONLY WORK WITH A FEW WOMEN AT A TIME. WHEN SPOTS ARE FILLED, THEY'RE FILLED.
IT'S JUST A CONVERSATION. NO PRESSURE, NO PITCH. I'LL TELL YOU HONESTLY IF I THINK I CAN HELP.

A woman with long, wavy blonde hair, seen from behind, stands in a modern, warmly lit interior space. She is wearing a long, white, form-fitting dress and holding a small, light-colored quilted handbag with a gold chain strap. She is looking down at the bag. The background features a curved wall, a staircase with illuminated steps, and a glass railing. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated and elegant.

TAKE THE FIRST STEP.

→ I'M READY

ONE LAST THING.

I spent my teenage years hiding from photos, turning down plans, feeling like my body was working against me no matter what I did. Restricting everything. Still bloated. Still not losing weight. Thinking the problem was me.

It wasn't me. And it's not you either.

The other side isn't perfect. But it's free — from the obsession, the guilt, the constant starting over. You wake up and don't immediately check your stomach. You get dressed without a negotiation. You have energy that lasts. You're actually in your life, not watching it from behind a calculation. Fill out the form. I'll read it personally and be back in touch.
